IDAHO TRANSGENDER NAME CHANGE GUIDE

Idaho State Name Change Process for Transgender Individuals

Name Change Process Overview

I. Introduction

The information included in this packet follows the standards of Idaho State Law as outlined in the Idaho Code Annotated. This packet will outline the name change process, as well as driver's license services, social security services, and will discuss current passport, social security, and birth certificate issues. The forms included do not include information about whether a petitioner is pre-operative or has intentions of proceeding with gender reassignment surgery, and they in no way legally obligate the petitioner to have any surgical procedure performed.

II. Idaho State Legal Name / Gender Change

Fees. The fee for a legal name change in Idaho is $166 as of February 1st, 2014, plus the cost of publishing the name change in the paper for four consecutive weeks, which the fee depends on the paper. Fees for publication can range between $80 - $130+. The final step is to attend a hearing for your name change, at which, if granted, the court approved legal name change document is given in the form of a certified court order.

Privacy Concerns. We are aware and concerned with privacy concerns due to the Idaho requirement of publication of the notice of hearing for a name change. It may be possible to file a motion to waive the statutory requirement for newspaper publication of the notice of hearing, and in order to do so, you will need to work with an Idaho attorney. While it does not completely compensate for privacy concerns, steps described below include the option to seal the court records so that they are not available for the public. If you choose this route, the statutorily required notification in the newspaper would still occur, but the long-term records of the court would not be publicly available.

Forms. Forms for name changes are created and maintained by the Court Assistance Office, a part of the Idaho Judicial Branch. Electronic copies of the name change forms provided herein can also be found at: www.courtselfhelp.idaho.gov/individual-forms-instructions. These forms may be modified to a particular individual's needs or situation; however, if changes occur outside of basic wording changes, it is highly recommended that the forms be reviewed by a practicing Idaho attorney to ensure an efficient name change process. The documents mentioned about that are necessary for obtaining a name change included in this packet are:

1) Instruction for Name Change

Form "CAO NCA Inst 1 Name Change (Adult and Minor)" provides detailed step-by-step instructions for name changes under Idaho law. You will not need to file this form, but you should follow its instructions closely. Instructions on the form are generally provided for an adult name change. The end of the document describes the differences for name changes for minors.

Note: The Instructions for Name Change do not include a requirement that you bring a self-addressed stamped envelope upon the date of filing. When you file the petition, the Court Clerk will ask you for a self-addressed stamped envelope so that the judge or judicial assistant can mail back the Notice of Hearing for your name change.

2) Petition for Name Change

In order to request a name change, you must file a petition in the district court of the county where you live. The petition needs to include information (place of birth, residence, present name, proposed name, nearest living relatives, etc.) and the reason for the requested name change. Use whichever is applicable: Form “CAO NCA 1-1 Petition for Name Change (Adult)” or Form “CAO NCM 1-1 Petition for Name Change (Minor).”

3) Notice of Hearing

Idaho law requires publication of the notice of hearing for a petition for a name change. The publication must occur for four successive weeks in a newspaper printed in the county in which you live. Use whichever is applicable: Form “CAO NCA 1-2 Notice of Hearing On Petition for Name Change (Adult)” or Form “CAO NCM 1-2 Notice of Hearing On Petition for Name Change (Minor).”

4) Name Change Letter for Publication

The Letter for Publication may be used, or you may use your own letter, to send the Notice of Hearing to a newspaper printed in the county in which you live. If you choose to use the form letter, it is Form “CAO NC 1-3 Name Change Letter for Publication.” In return, after the four weeks of publication have passed, the newspaper will send you an Affidavit or Proof of Publication. You will need to bring this with you or mail it to the court to be filed prior to your hearing.

5) Parental Consent to Name Change or Affidavit of Service

For minors, one parent will need to file paperwork and be present at the hearing. From the other parent, most judges will require either:

- (a) A signature from the other parent on a consent to name change (Form “CAO NCM 2-1 Parental Consent to Name Change (Minor)”); or
- (b) That the other parent is served with the Petition of Name Change and an affidavit of service is filed with the court (Form “CAO NCM 2-2 Affidavit of Service on Petition for Name Change and Notice of Hearing (Minor)”).

6) Order for Name Change

If the court approves your name change, the judge will sign a copy of the Order for Name Change. Bring either Form “CAO NCA 8-1 Order for Name Change (Adult)” or Form “CAO NCM 8-1 Order for Name Change (Minor).” After the judge signs the order, you may receive your certified copies from the clerk’s office. You may choose to bring additional copies (if you need multiple copies for paperwork) to be certified, which will save you a small amount on clerk copying fees.

7) Motion to Seal File and Order Sealing File

If you would like the court to seal the file, which would exempt it from public disclosure requirements in the future, you may file a Motion to Seal File. If the Court approves the Motion to Seal File, the Court will sign the Order Sealing File.

Process. The steps for processing a name change are:

- 1) Before you file:
 - a) Fill out the Petition for Name Change, Notice of Hearing (title caption area only), and, for names changes for minors, Parental Consent documents included in this packet.
 - b) Take those three forms, cash or a money order for $166, and a self addressed stamped envelope to the Court Clerk's office at your county courthouse.
 - c) The clerk will accept your payment and the forms.

- 2) Before the hearing:
 - a) About a week after you file, you will receive a Notice of Hearing from the court clerk. It will come to you in the self addressed stamped envelope that you provided and will notify you of the time and date of your hearing.
 - b) Take that Notice of Hearing or a copy of it to your local newspaper with Letter for Publication (form included), where it must be published once a week for four consecutive weeks. For those of you in the Boise area, we recommend using the Boise Weekly.
 - c) About a month later, you will receive an affidavit from the newspaper certifying that they published the Notice of Hearing.
 - d) Prior to the hearing, fill out the Order for Name Change, Motion to Seal File, and Order to Seal File documents that are included in this packet.

- 3) At the Hearing:
 - a) Bring the affidavit from the newspaper, your completed Order for Name Change, Motion to Seal File, and Order to Seal File.
 - b) Typically name change hearings are done in a "cattle call" order. This means that all matters to be heard have the same start time. You will sit behind the bar (the half wall separating the front of the courtroom with the seating) with the others until the judge calls your name. Because name changes are typically quick, you will likely be called up at the beginning, but this can vary.
 - c) When the judge calls your name, you can sit at one of the tables in front of the bar. The judge will ask you for the affidavit from the newspaper.
 - d) At this point, if you would like to seal the file to prevent it from becoming public record, you should tell the judge that you would like to make a motion to seal the file.
 - e) In Idaho, the standard to seal a file is whether publication of the information in the case could endanger life or safety. If the judge asks why you want to seal the file, tell him or her that a public record with your address and stated reason for name change is a safety concern.
 - f) The judge will sign the order for the name change and has discretion about whether or not to seal the file.
 - g) After the judge signs the order, and typically within about an hour, you can get certified copies of the name change order. You'll need these to document your name change for your bank, insurance, passport, or any other paperwork.

III. Idaho Drivers License Services

Under Idaho Transportation Department Administrative Policy 5504, the State of Idaho Department of Motor Vehicles driver's license services require either: (1) a court order; or (2) an original affidavit of a licensed medical doctor stating that the patient / petitioner "has undergone a change of gender." The affidavit of change of gender, later in this document, meets the requirements of the Idaho Transportation Department. It should be completed by your primary care physician and must be notarized.

IV. Idaho Vital Statistics

Name changes on birth certificates have to be amended through the Health and Welfare Department's office of vital statistics. A letter needs to be prepared for the request, along with a government issued ID and supporting documentation (court ordered legal name change document). It costs $13.00 and still could be rejected. There is no policy about whether or not the department will grant your request, but you can appeal if they deny it. The other downside to this is the "old" name is printed below the "new" name, meaning that if a birth certificate is needed for use, it will most likely out the person as being transgender. The other current issue is that there is no way to currently modify / replace the gender marker on an Idaho-issued birth certificate.

V. Passport

In order to change your name and gender marker on your passport, you will need a Court Order and Physician's affidavit along with passport information identified on <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/passports/information/gender.html>. The physician statement must include mention of whether you have completed or are in the process of gender transition, which is not defined, but must be determined by the physician's judgment in accordance with standards of the World Professional Association for Transgender Health. The affidavit included in this packet will comply with current requirements from the US Department of State for those who have completed their transition. An affidavit template for those who are in the process of transition is available on the website linked in this paragraph.

VI. Social Security

The social security department will replace the gender marker associated with a social security number upon being presented supporting documentation to reflect the change in sex. The best means of changing your social security number's sex marker is to get a full-validity, 10-year U.S. passport which reflects the new sex marker. Because the US state department no longer requires surgical intervention to change the sex marker, this is often the best route.

Another means is to get a medical certification of appropriate clinic treatment for gender transition in the form of any original signed statement from a licensed physician, which is outlined in our social security gender change guide.

INSTRUCTION FOR NAME CHANGE
CAO NC INSTRUCTION 1 (Revised 2/12/2008)

To petition (ask) for a name change in Idaho as an adult, you will need the following forms

- NCA 1-1 Petition for Name Change
- NCA 1-2 Notice of Hearing
- NCA 8-1 Order for Name Change
- NC 1-3 Name Change Letter for Publication

Step 1. Obtain and Complete the Required Forms

Complete the forms listed above by typing or neatly and legibly printing in black ink. Fill in your full current name, address, and telephone number on the lines provided at the left-hand corner of page 1 of each form. Fill in the judicial district and your county in the heading in capital letters (for example, "IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF LATAH"). Fill in your full legal name on the line after "In RE" in the caption, and your date of birth. Fill out the remainder of each individual form, providing the information requested. If a section of a form does not apply to you, write "none" or "N/A". To complete the Petition, you must fill in the name of a newspaper of general circulation in the county where you live. This is the newspaper you will use to publish the notice of hearing. It must be a newspaper that publishes legal notices at least once a week. The Petition must be signed in front of a Notary Public.

If you have questions about the information requested, you may want to read the procedure for a Name Change found in Title 7 of the Idaho Code, §7-801-§7-804. You can search the Idaho Code on the Internet at <http://www3.state.id.us>. Help getting copies of those statutes or accessing the Internet is available at some Court Assistance Offices.

Step 2. Make Copies and File With the Clerk

Make a copy your Petition and two copies of your Notice of Hearing. Place the copies underneath each completed form.

Go to the window in the Clerk's Office in the county where you live. Give the Clerk the following:

- Filing fee payable in cash or money order, not by personal check (visit <http://www.courtselfhelp.idaho.gov/filingfees> for current filing fees), or a Motion and Affidavit for Fee Waiver, FW 1-9, and a proposed Order Re: Fee Waiver, FW 1-10.
- The original plus one copy of the Petition for Name Change (ANC 1-1)
- The original plus two copies of the Notice of Hearing (Name Change) (ANC 3)

Ask the Court Clerk to set your hearing at least six weeks later. The Court Clerk will issue the Notice of Hearing when your filing fee is paid or when a judge approves your fee waiver. Some Court Clerks keep the original Notice of Hearing and give you only the two copies (one for you and one for the newspaper). Other Court Clerks will give you back the original and the copies. The original will have to be in the court file for your hearing. Be sure to keep it safe.

Step 3. Have the Notice of Hearing published in the newspaper.

Sign the Letter for Publication and send it, along with a copy of the Notice of Hearing, to the newspaper you selected. The Notice needs to be published once a week for (4) four successive weeks. The newspaper will send you the Affidavit of Publication. Take (or mail) the Affidavit of publication to the Court Clerk at the Courthouse for filing. If you were given the original Notice of Hearing, return it to the Court Clerk with the Affidavit of Publication.

Step 4. Attend the Hearing

Idaho Code §7-804 requires the Petitioner appear at the hearing. If you have not filed your Affidavit of Publication, do so before the hearing. Bring the original Order, plus as many copies of the Order as you will need to have certified (for social security, driver's licensing, payroll, etc.). The judge may require that you be examined under oath at the hearing, or the judge may sign the Order without testimony if no one appears at the hearing to object.

Sample testimony is: "My name is _____. I was born on _____. I am not being sued by any creditors. I am not considering filing a bankruptcy. I have never been convicted of a crime (or an explanation of the circumstances). I want to change my name because: _____."

After the judge signs the Order, you can obtain certified copies from the Court Clerk's office. A certified copy will cost you $.50 a page plus $1.00 for the seal, since you provided the copies. If you forgot copies, the charge will be $1.00 a page plus $1.00 for the seal.

Minor name change

If you are petitioning (asking) to have a minor's name changed you follow the same steps described above, but use some different forms: NCM 1-1 or NCM 1-4 for the petition; NCM 1-2 or NCM 1-5 for the notice of hearing; and NCM 8-1 or NCM 8-2 for the order, (the letter of publication to the newspaper is the same for adults and minors). The parent or guardian will be the petitioner in the action. The child/ren's current legal name(s) is (are) used in the "In Re:" section of the documents. One parent must sign the petition and appear at the hearing. Most judges will require the other parent to be served with the Petition for Name Change (and an Affidavit of Service be filed with the court [NCM 2-2 or NCM 2-3]) or that the other parent sign a form for Parental Consent to Name Change (NCM 2-1). Note: For more than one child, you will need to use a separate parental consent form NCM 2-1 for each child. You can check with your local Court Assistance Office to find out if you will need to use one of these additional forms to process the child/ren's name change/s.
